

DOES OUR CITY’S BUDGET REFLECT OUR COMMITMENT TO VIOLENCE PREVENTION?

Oakland City Budget

FY 2020-21

In 2014 Oakland voters approved Measure Z, a tax measure to raise $24-25 million annually to fund violence prevention programs such as domestic violence intervention, youth development programs and community policing. It was a continuation of the 2004 Violence Preventional Act.

Measure Z budget

FY 2020-2021

Measure Z budget is allocated across multiple departments that work with community organizations to intervene before crimes occur and to address contributing factors of poverty and inequality.

